

WORK ON COOL PROJECTS!

Astra is growing our team. We are a General Contractor with an in-house grading and utility business and Job Order Contracting (JOC) division headquartered Woodstock, GA. Astra has a second office in West Midtown Atlanta. Being well versed in vertical and civil construction is a great combo for our team. We are in need of a really bright competitive personality who has the ability to work with a team to manage projects from $100,000 to $50 million.

We work for many public and private organizations including The Atlanta BeltLine Inc., colleges/universities, state, county and city municipalities, airports, CIDs and national developers. Astra has constructed a multitude of high-profile projects throughout Georgia. Our family-owned business of over 150 employees provides growth opportunities for current and future employees.

We are looking for experienced individuals with at least five years of construction experience. We are also looking for interns that are seeking a degree in Construction Management, Construction Engineering, Civil Engineering or Architecture. Openings are available in Georgia and Florida. Candidates must be self-driven, self-starter and a team leader.
